

Terms and Conditions

Rising Aspirations will provide drama, singing and dance classes for recreational purposes and will not have the objective of training students to attain academic qualifications unless stated.

A student's application will only be deemed to have been accepted once their application form is received by Rising Aspirations. Receipt of the application and any fees paid at the time of application will be confirmed in writing. Acceptance of any student is not confirmed until that letter has been issued.

Written confirmation from Rising Aspirations confirming that a student has been allocated a place establishes a contract for the provision of teaching services.

The contract automatically continues for the following term unless it is terminated with the sufficient notice as stated below.

Termination will only be accepted when received by Rising Aspirations in writing. If a student leaves before the agreed end date, no refunds will be given.

A student must give one term's written notice if they wish to terminate the contract. This must be before the first week of the student's final term.

The following methods of payment are available: Cash, cheque, bank transfer.

Fees are paid termly (six weeks) and must be paid by the first week of each term.

Late payment of fees will incur a charge of £10.00 to be added to the invoiced amount.

Any charges Rising Aspirations incur due to returned cheques will be passed onto the customer for payment.

Fees are revised annually in September.

Students must adhere to the Behaviour Policy and Rising Aspirations reserves the right to exclude students from lessons at its discretion.

Rising Aspirations reserves the right to make changes to the timetable and to the teaching staff.

Students participate at their own risk and are obliged to inform staff of any existing injuries or medical conditions.

Rising Aspirations can accept no liability for lost or damaged belongings.

The student's parent/guardian is solely responsible for ensuring the student's safe arrival and return to home from all classes and performances.

The student's parent/guardian acknowledges and consents on behalf of the student to allow Rising Aspirations to photograph, record, publish, display and broadcast performances at its sole discretion.
